

Policing Violence, Risk and Resources:
promoting policing research at
Loughborough University

A One Day Symposium
Wednesday 16th November 2016

10.00-12.00 – L.0.36 Wavy Top Building
12.00-1.00 – Lunch in James France Exhibition Area
1.00-4.00 – CC.0.21 James France Building

To Register Please Use This Link:
<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/policing-violence-risk-and-resources-tickets-27279504733>

Programme

Time	Theme	Presentation	Presenter
L036 Wavy Top
10.00		Welcome	Professors Steve Case (organiser), John Downey (CCC research challenge lead), James Stanyer (Head of Dept. of Social Sciences)
10.30-12.00	Policing violence	Policing sexual harassment on the London Underground	Sian Lewis (Department of Social Sciences)
		Exploring the effectiveness of officer safety training delivery	Prof. Chris Cushion (School of Sport, Exercise and Health Sciences)
		Victims, crime and the public: EMPAC	Alex Black (Department of Social Sciences)
Exhibition Area James France
12.00-13.00	Lunch
CC021 James France
13.00-13.20		Welcome	Professor Steve Rothberg (PVC Research) Prof. Nick Clifford (Dean of the School of Social, Political and Geographical Sciences)
13.20-14.50	Risk management	CCTV as risk management	Prof. Eran Edirisinghe (Department of Computer Science)
		Risk assessment in custody	Dr Ross Richie (School of Business and Economics)
		Predictive resource management	Dr Lisa Jackson (Department of Aeronautical and Automotive Engineering)
14.50-15.00	Coffee
15.00-16.30	Improving operational policing	Effective policing of football supporters	Jamie Cleland (Department of Social Sciences)
		The effects of restricted police resources on organisational culture	Jamie Farrell (Department of Social Sciences)
		Why police communication needs research-based training	Prof. Liz Stokoe and Prof. Charles Antaki (Department of Social Sciences)